

SCIENCE TEACHING POSITIONS AT ROSARY ACADEMY

Rosary Academy is currently accepting applications for the position of Science teacher. Candidate must teach a broad range of Science classes including but not limited to Biology and Honors Chemistry. Preference will be given to someone with technology integration in the classroom.

Responsibilities and Duties: Teaching:

- Work collaboratively with all stakeholders to create an academically rigorous, college-going culture that is both challenging and supportive of students
- Implement curriculum that utilize challenges students research-based instructional strategies and methods
- Engage all learners and successfully manage a classroom environment
- Connect daily student learning to real-world problems and situations in the Science field
- Model how to program and build structurally sound robots and support groups of students in building and programming their own.
- Teach students the principles of Robotics including the functions of power source, sensors, motors and structural members of a robot.
- Participate in trainings and program development during the summer and throughout the year
- Attend and participate in after-school school and department meetings, events, and Professional Development during the summer or school year

Qualifications:

- B.A./B.S. in Science or Masters' in Science.
- California Credential in a science related field preferred
- Must be flexible and patient with students; able to present complex content in a variety of ways
- Willingness and desire to teach students who might be reluctant learners
- Strong affinity for hands-on teaching and learning
- Motivation to engage all students, especially reluctant learners